

DRI took part in a World Bank mission aimed at developing a reform plan debt management. The recommendations were structured around three areas: strategy medium-term debt, Back Office, and developing the domestic market. The mission prepared a project that will be submitted for peer review and then to the Kyrgyz authorities for comment. It is anticipated that the final report be completed by June/July 2015.