

In the last 8 months, Development Finance International has expanded its advocacy work on debt, aid and innovative financing, increased its in-country capacity-building support on debt management (through an enhanced partnership with the World Bank, read more ...