

DFI joined a World Bank MTDS mission in Ulan Bator to focus on providing technical assistance in debt management strategy formulation. At the request of the Ministry of Finance, the mission shared the Bank-Fund framework for Medium-Term Debt Management Strategy (MTDS) development, and jointly with a government team, applied it to Mongolia. In the process, the team provided training on basic cost-risk analysis, data preparation, and preparation of a debt management strategy document.