

At the request of the Niger authorities, a joint World Bank/Debt Relief International mission visited Niamey to prepare a debt management Reform Plan. The mission was a follow-up to the DeMPA mission of March 2012 which revealed certain weaknesses. In collaboration with the local authorities, the mission proposed four major areas of reforms in terms of governance, debt management strategy, external borrowing procedures and operational risks.