

At a symposium in Vienna to prepare the 2010 UN Development Cooperation Forum, more than 180 international aid experts discussed how best to promote mutual accountability for aid effectiveness and results, and how to monitor and analyse the results of South-South cooperation. DFI prepared background analytical studies on mutual accountability and South-South-cooperation for the meeting. To access other documents relating to the meeting please click here