

DFI participated in a DeMPA assessment mission led by the World Bank. It also met policy makers about continuing to provide its longstanding capacity-building support on debt management and potentially providing support on foreign private capital management