

DFI joined representatives of the AERC, African Development Bank and New Rules for Global Finance for a series of advocacy meetings with senior US government officials (Federal Reserve, Treasury and Congress) to transmit African views on forthcoming reforms to global financial regulation. Discussions were highly positive and produced a series of proposals for future cooperation. For a report on the outcomes, click here .