Senegal successfully closed its first cycle of the FPC CBP in March with an impressive response rate of 80%. It is now releasing results in a comprehensive report which analyses collected data on investor perception and foreign private capital. Click here to read the detailed analysis and subsequent policy recommendations. Also in the region, Benin closed its first FPC CBP cycle with closing and dissemination workshop, thus completing their first national survey of foreign private capital and investor perception, with a high response 74.4% response rate. The country report with survey results and policy recommendations will soon be posted on this page. Future events in the Franc Zone will be Cameroon closing its second cycle, followed by other dissemination events Guinea Bissau, Niger and Togo.