Latest analytical reports from The Gambia and Ghana are now available for download. The Gambia report tracks the unfolding impact of the global economic crisis, and the expansion of dynamic sectors including finance, real estate and tourism. The Ghana report describes the results of its pilot survey, and finds significant levels FDI and other investment.