

This Central Bank report presents data captured in a series of quarterly surveys, which recently replaced the annual foreign assets and liabilities surveys. It covers stocks and gross transactions for 2007-8 split into loans and credits from related companies (a component of FDI), supplier credits from unrelated entities, and loans from unrelated entities. Other breakdowns include maturity, sector of economic activity, and source country.