

The Paris Club Creditors and Brazil agreed to reduce the Democratic Republic of the Congo's debt after the country reached completion point. Under the enhanced HIPC Initiative, and with a view to encourage debt sustainability, DRC will receive a total of USD 7 350 million of debt relief. For full details, read the press release .