

A soon-to-be-announced dissemination event will close Niger's first survey of Foreign Private Capital flows and Investor Perceptions. Achieving an impressive response rate of 89.1%, the country is now releasing its national analytical report containing all the detailed findings generated by the survey, covering the methodological approach used, analysis of investment climate and of foreign assets and liabilities, and policy recommendations