

DFI was contracted by the Government of the Kyrgyz Republic in order to train government officials in the latest LIC-DSF methodology. The training was organized by the Ministry of Finance and was opened to staff from various departments at the Ministry as well as the Central Bank. Training included lectures about the methodology and the DSF template. The last two days allowed for participants to practice with some country specific exercises.