

In keeping with the national capacity building programme in aid management, and audit and control started in 2010, the national manual of procedures for the management and control of public investment projects is now being finalised and will be released for official use shortly.