

DFI took part in a World Bank-led DeMPA mission to Port-au-Prince. This mission focused on assessing Haiti's debt management in keeping with DeMPA methodology, in a context where public debt management has been transferred from the Budget department to the Treasury. This mission was an opportunity to highlight the urgent assistance needed in terms of the regulatory, institutional and organisational framework and to support a more dynamic management of the information system via a three-year reform plan.