

DFI will be funded by the Swiss State Secretariat for Economic Cooperation (SECO) to provide debt strategy assistance to the Government of Sudan. The assistance will consist of two missions and two workshops, reinforcing Sudan's debt management institutions, training officials in debt strategy analysis techniques, and producing a strategy document to guide Sudan's potential progress in clearing debt arrears, moving through HIPC and MDRI debt relief, and mobilising longer-term financing for its development.