

DFI facilitated a week-long Seco-financed seminar where officials from the Central Bank of Sudan and Ministry of Finance discussed their technical conclusions about debt relief and new borrowing with colleagues from other government agencies, and then drafted a debt strategy document for Sudan covering the period 2016-18. The strategy will be discussed and approved at political level early in 2016.