

This type of missions is in response to Government's request for assistance to prepare for a seminar or one-day event to sensitise one or more of senior policymakers, parliamentarians, the donor community, CSOs or the public to the importance and relevance of the government's debt or aid policy. The mission will work with national officials to prepare or update the underlying strategy analysis and assist with drafting of presentations and documentation. The mission will also help the presenters rehearse their presentations and prepare for questions.

The output of the mission will be the presentations and documentation for the seminar or event.
