

DFI also offers assistance in relation to the building up of debt databases including streamlining information flows; undertaking debt data validation; producing statistical bulletin and debt reviews etc. In so doing, we provide countries with data-informed insights to manage the public debt portfolio more effectively and promote greater transparency in the dissemination of debt data.