

DFI has assisted a number of countries to prepare domestic financing policies, including analysis of how to restructure their domestic debt portfolios and consider new issuance strategies. This assistance has included conducting analyses for countries, but in general DFI prefers to build countries' capacity to do their own analysis and strategy design. For this purpose it has developed extensive training and capacity-building materials.

Please contact DFI for more information.