

DFI is assisting the Office of the Prime Minister to elaborate a Partnership Policy to define aid and “beyond aid” cooperation with its development partners. The first mission elaborated an issues paper describing the main policies to be adopted by Government. Future missions will help draft the Partnership Policy, discuss it with all stakeholders, and agree memoranda of understanding between government and partners on performance targets for aid delivery and cooperation beyond aid.