The logo for 'New Rules for Global Finance' features a green header bar with the text 'NEW RULES FOR GLOBAL FINANCE' in white. Below this, the words 'New Rules for' are in a smaller green font, and 'Global Finance' is in a larger, bold green font. A small globe icon is positioned between 'Global' and 'Finance'. A second green bar at the bottom contains the text 'NEW RULES FOR GLOBAL FINANCE' in white.

New Rules for Global Finance

In recognition of the 5th anniversary of the G20 London Summit, the Overseas Development Institute, in cooperation with Development Finance International and New Rules for Global Finance, is hosting a public discussion on “Is Global Governance Fit for Purpose?” on Tuesday 1st April. The event will launch the published by New Rules in collaboration with ten additional organisations. This report assesses how well the G20, IMF, World Bank, FSB and global tax system are governed, and whether they are having the desired positive impact: have they achieved their goal and made global financial governance fit for purpose, so that it is having a positive impact on the world's citizens?

Global Financial Governance and Impact Report
