There are no translations available.

DFI presented in a seminar at New Rules for Global Finance on how the G20, FSB, IMF, World Bank and tax governance institutions currently assess their impact. The seminar was well-attended by senior officials from the institutions, and conducted a comprehensive review of the institutions' impact assessment methods, which will feed into an improved impact assessment methodology for the 2014 Global Financial Governance and Impact Report (GFGIR). To read the 2013 GFGIR, click here .