

There are no translations available.

As we approach the MDG deadline and the world prepares for the new Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), GSW is focusing its attention on the health sector in Africa. Using GSW's latest 2014 data

, this briefing

takes stock of current progress on spending targets in Africa in the health sector and asks: is Africa ready for the spending needed to meet the health SDGs?